TO: ALL CALIFORNIA FIREARMS DEALERS

The purpose of this information bulletin is to announce the discontinuation of the "pre-pawn" Dealer Record of Sale (DROS) check and to advise of a new DROS form Country of Citizenship field.

The Personal Firearms Eligibility Check Replaces the Pre-Pawn DROS Check

Since the inception of the permanent federal Brady Act provisions, commencing November 1, 1998, the California Department of Justice (DOJ) has authorized dealers to voluntarily conduct a "pre-pawn" Dealer Record of Sale (DROS) eligibility check in order to ascertain whether an individual's firearm eligibility status may detrimentally affect the return of any pawned firearms.

However, effective January 1, 2004, DOJ introduced the Personal Firearms Eligibility Check (PFEC) process pursuant to Penal Code section 12077.5 (Senate Bill 255, Chapter 298, Statutes 2003). Please refer to Firearms Division Information Bulletin 2003 FD-04 for more information on the PFEC program. This information is available on the Firearms Division web site at: <http://caag.state.ca.us/firearms/infobuls/index.html>.

The new PFEC supercedes and obsolesces the "pre-pawn" DROS eligibility check. Therefore, effective immediately, the authorization to submit a no-firearm DROS for a firearms eligibility "pre-check" is rescinded. Dealers may not submit a DROS form if no firearm is being transferred.

Customers seeking to ascertain their personal firearms eligibility status should be provided the PFEC application form which is available on the Firearms Division web site at <http://caag.state.ca.us/firearms/forms/index.html>.

New DROS Form Country of Citizenship Field

Effective immediately, a Country of Citizenship field has been added to the DROS form in both the purchaser and private party transfer (seller) sections.

Previously, whenever a purchaser or private party seller indicated he/she is a non-U.S. citizen, the individual's country of citizenship was entered onto the DROS form's Place of Birth field in lieu of the actual place of birth.

This DROS form upgrade accommodates both data requirements. Whenever a purchaser or private party seller indicate he/she is a non-U.S. citizen, that individual's country of citizenship is now entered in the corresponding Country of Citizenship field. The automated DROS entry system provides a convenient drop-down table for this entry. The individual's place of birth is entered in the corresponding Place of Birth field.

A copy of the new DROS Worksheet is enclosed for your convenience.

If you have any questions regarding this information, please contact the Firearms Division at (916) 263-4887.
